STALE CREAM

Used In Manufacture of Ice Cream.

Resulted In Large Number Being Taken Sick.

Sanitary Policeman M. W. Hoye has made an investigation of the poisoning resulting from the use of ice cream.

It was found that the ice cream was made from cream that had been kept too long and that had partly fermented. There will be no prosecution.

The ice cream was peddled from house to house by a boy, who made a percentage on the quantity sold. The name of the dealer is withheld, so as not to injure his trade.

Three children in the family of Wm. Horn of 102 Otto st., were taken seriously sick and it was feared that a stomach pump would have to be used to save their lives. Doctors Hill and Febr attended them.

Mrs. Duve of 218 Bluff st., bought a small quantity of the ice cream. She ate some and gave a dish to Mildred Weary of 218 1/2 Bluff st. Both of them were taken ill.

Others affected by eating the cream were Mrs. L. Cargould and three children, 211 Bluff st., and a child of Mrs. John W. Boyes, 108 Otto st. Many ate the ice cream and suffered no inconvenience.

QUARRELED,

And the Lover Enlisted—Second Chapter of Romance.

Harry and Glendelle, the Wooster lovers, who a few weeks ago figured in a little episode at the local recruiting office, have had another quarrel, and Harry has enlisted at some other recruiting office. Glendelle has heard that he's in California. She's not sure, however, of his whereabouts, and Thursday morning Recruiting Officer Turner received a letter from her. She wants him to get Harry's address at once, as she has something important to say to him. Perhaps she has relented again, and the wedding that was to have taken place in June may occur in July.

Chapin Enlisting.

Robert Chapin has enlisted in the United States army for service in the Philippines. He was employed at the Goodrich company. His action was a surprise to relatives and his employers.

FUNERAL SERVICES—Funeral services over the remains of John W. Hudson were conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, 125 Kirkwood st. The service was in charge of McPherson lodge, K. of P. The floral offerings of sympathetic friends were profuse and beautiful.

THREE

Alleged Absconders.

Akron Company Says Fraud Was Attempted.

Attachment Issued to Protect Its Claim.

Davidson Charges His Name Was Forged.

Sensation Developed—Wife's Answer—Court News.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber company claims that three of its Chicago agents attempted to defraud it of $3,432.45. The company alleges that John B. Perrine, Max Lowenstein and one Moses, first name unknown, doing business under the firm name of the Cycle Repair Co., have absconded, for the purpose of defrauding their creditors.

The local corporation filed a petition in Common Pleas court Thursday morning asking judgment against the firm for the amount named. The company says it holds a check for $3,432.45, signed by the three defendants. When presented for payment it was returned endorsed "no funds." Because of this the company seeks the judgment. The allegations of fraud are made by F. A. Selberling, treasurer of the company, in an affidavit for attachment. He claims the India Rubber company has property belonging to the defendants which he wants applied on the payment of the plaintiff's claim.

A sensation has developed in the trial of the case of Mary Sheldon vs. D. L. and W. B. Sykes et al. She seeks to collect $712.64, due on a promissory note. On the note appears the signature of Robert Davidson. He contests the case claiming that he never signed the paper. While W. B. Sykes was on the stand, the attorneys for Davidson attempted to show that the signature was a forgery. He was asked if he did not draw up the note himself. He was then asked if Davidson's signature was not in his (Sykes) writing. The attorneys for Mrs. Sheldon objected to this line of examination. It developed during the hearing that W. B. Sykes, one of the defendants, was arrested for the alleged embezzlement of $2,000, funds of Richfield township. He was never tried on the charge.

Wife's Answer. Mrs. Sophia Kastner, has filed an answer to the divorce petition of her husband, John Kastner. She denies all his charges. As a cross petition she alleges that even since their marriage, with the exception of three months, she has been compelled to earn her living by working in the Diamond Match Company. When their baby was six weeks old, she says her husband ordered her to return to the shop. She charges gross neglect and asks for a divorce, the custody of the child and alimony.

Will Filed. The will of Mary A. Smith, drawn in Philadelphia, Sept. 12, 1876, has been filed in Probate court. She directs that her remains be taken to Pittsburgh and buried beside those of her father and mother. Six grandchildren are given $200 each. The balance of the estate is given to a daughter, Florine Johnson.

Judgments. The case of Alfred E. Lyman vs. Andrew Jack J. Best Jackson was submitted to Judge Kohler. He gave the plaintiff judgments for $3,748.00 against each of the defendants.

Naturalized. Frans Anton Katscher, a native of Germany, was given naturalization
